For Evaluating Significance within Registered Historic Districts: Complete section (1), (2), or (3) according to which of the Secretary's "Standards for Evaluating Significance within Registered Historic Districts" applies.

- (1) ☒ The structure contributes to the historic significance of this district in:
☒ location ☒ design ☒ setting ☒ materials _____ workmanship ☒ feeling and association

Briefly explain how this structure relates to the significant qualities and characteristics of the district as described in the National Register nomination form or district documentation on file.

The district comprises a cohesive unit of residential, commercial and institutional bldgs, laid out in a "Garden City" pattern. It is characterized primarily by 20th c. bldgs of various styles & materials, situated in a variety of open spaces. Constructed in 1919, this is the earliest commercial structure in the district and relates through style, design, scale, materials & setting.

- (2) _____ The structure does not contribute to the historic significance of this district because:
_____ it does not add to the district's sense of time and place and historical development;
_____ the location, design, setting, materials, workmanship, feeling and association have been so altered or have so deteriorated that the overall integrity of the property has been irretrievably lost.

Briefly explain this recommendation:

- (3) _____ For structures less than 50 years old:
_____ the historical merits of the district are documented in the National Register form or district documentation on file as less than 50 years old, justifying the certification of this structure's contribution.
_____ the strong historical or architectural merit of this structure as described in the National Register nomination form or district documentation on file justifies its certification as contributing.
_____ there is insufficient justification to consider this structure contributing on the basis of its individual architectural or historical merits or the significance of the district

Briefly explain how Standard (3) applies to this structure's individual merits or its significance in relationship to the significant qualities and characteristics of the district:
